RE: Mr. Caul Silford Grant:
Unlawful Detainment.

Dear Mr. Creighton

I wish to introduce you to a very unusual matter regarding the above named individual.

Currently, he is detained in Prison on an Unsigned Indictment, after openly resulting to defy all UK Laws as a consequence of gross Injustice resulting in his False Imprisonment in 1998.

Since then Mr. Grant has patiently sought remedy and redress for False Imprisonment acts to no avail. The failure to resolve his earlier matter has led to his resulting to choose to openly defy UK laws in order to force his long standing issue for redress.

His approach may be frowned upon, but what was he to do when Injustice was done him and there was no willingness to attempt to appease or resolve it prior to him taking defying action. However drastic, it is a fact in law that 'a lawbreaker cannot be its enforcer'. Maybe this is why his Indictment is Unsigned, as is normally required to be signed by law.

As you know, all convictions shall be null and void, even if they were admitted to under such circumstances. It is for this reason we summon your service in hope and prayer that you will be happy to represent in this matter for Justice sake.

Yours Sincerely
