The Chairman
Mr. Andrew Dismore MP
Human Rights Joint Committee
House of Commons
Westminster
London SW1A 0AA

Dear Sir

We wish to formally bring to your attention a very severe constitutional crisis, which involves a grave perversion of justice, by the judiciary.

The said perversion has been aided and abetted by several government departments, including the Criminal Cases Review Commission and the Media.

The issues have been brought to the attention of two former Home Secretaries by Buckingham Palace and to the present Home secretary by ourselves.

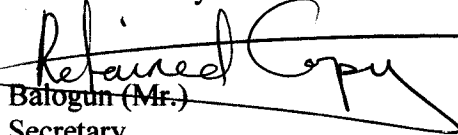

There is no greater criminal act than that committed deliberately by the judiciary, in the performance of its duties.

Criminal activity by the Judiciary is tantamount to treason, because it threatens the Rule of Law and all fundamental principles of this country's partly written and unwritten constitution.

It is our relentless endeavour and ambition to expose this grave violation of the Rule of Law and secure its rightful enforcement.

We therefore urge the committee to do all it can, within its powers, to assist us in arresting the ongoing criminal activity by the judiciary and others.

Yours Sincerely

Balogun (Mr.)
Secretary
